ROLES OF MANAGER

Henry Mintzberg identified ten different roles, separated into three categories. The categories he defined are as follows

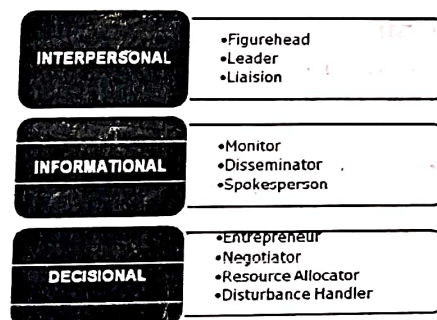

a) Interpersonal Roles

The ones that, like the name suggests, involve people and other ceremonial duties. It can be further classified as follows

- Leader – Responsible for staffing, training, and associated duties.
- Figurehead – The symbolic head of the organization.
- Liaison – Maintains the communication between all contacts and informers that compose the organizational network.

b) Informational Roles

Related to collecting, receiving, and disseminating information.

Handwritten notes:

- Interpersonal Roles
- Informational Roles
- Decisional Roles

- Monitor – Personally seek and receive information, to be able to understand the organization.
- Disseminator – Transmits all important information received from outsiders to the members of the organization.
- Spokesperson – On the contrary to the above role, here the manager transmits the organization's plans, policies and actions to outsiders.

c) Decisional Roles

Roles that revolve around making choices.

- Entrepreneur – Seeks opportunities. Basically they search for change, respond to it, and exploit it.
- Negotiator – Represents the organization at major negotiations.
- Resource Allocator – Makes or approves all significant decisions related to the allocation of resources.
- Disturbance Handler – Responsible for corrective action when the organization faces disturbances.
